

CONTENTS

Olha Tkachenko, Ayur Zhanaev
Foreword	9
Robert Sucharski
A Few Words in Way of Introduction	15
Jan Kieniewicz
Experiences in Searching for the Identity of a Nation	23
I
INSIDER AND OUTSIDER EXPERIENCES
Daria Burnasheva
Uncovering Arcticness: Experiences of Arctic Identity at Home and Abroad	59
Galina Dondukova
Insider, Outsider, or In-Between? The Experience of Studying the Buryat Ethnic Identity in Poland	83
Ayur Zhanaev
The Falling Rain Will Stop, The Guest Who Arrived Will Leave: Once Again on “Insider” and “Outsider” Positions in the Buryat Field	99

CONTENTS

II

IDENTITY IN THE TEXT AND IN DISCOURSE

Olha Tkachenko

Perceived Identity: Real Objectivity or Deconstruction of Discourse? 119

Irina Koluzaeva

Life Strategies in a Wartime Borderland: Problems of Identity of People “In Between” on the Eastern Border of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania during the Livonian War 137

Bato Dondukov

Virtual Reality as Fieldwork: A Study of Buddhist Communities of Russia on the Internet 155

III

FROM PERSONAL IDENTITY TO IDENTITY OF A SCHOLAR

Kyunney Takasaeva (Künnej Takaahaj)

Reflections on Name and Identity: “What Do You See in My Name?” 179

Wojciech Cendrowski

A Blue Collar as an Ethnographer: A Few Reflections about Ethnographic Fieldwork in the Context of the Polish University 205

Marzena Maciulewicz

In Search of Scientific Identity: Reflections on Intercultural Partnership, Fieldwork, and Researcher’s Engagement 229

Kamil Maria Wielecki

International and Interdisciplinary Doctoral Programs in the Polish Academic Culture – Obstacles and Opportunities: Observations of a Graduate and Coordinator 267

IVINTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION
AS A COMPONENT OF ACADEMIC CHANGEValeria Korablyova*

Imagining a Modern Poland: Lessons for Ukraine 287

Oleksiy Polunin

Time Flow in the Human Mind. 307

*Inna Sukhenko*Literary Chernobyl as a Factor of Ecological Identity Formation:
The Case of Ukraine 341*Natalia Andriichuk*

Terminology in Inclusive Education: Its Evaluation in Ukraine 361

About the Authors 375