

It is our great honour and pleasure to present this Festschrift to Marek Mejer. For over forty years now, he has been an outstanding scholar of Indian, Tibetan, and Buddhist studies, participating in and influencing the course of those disciplines in Poland and worldwide.

Through this felicitation volume, we would like to express our deepest gratitude to Marek for his guidance and support over the years. We feel most fortunate to have been joined in this tribute by a great number of Marek's students, friends, and colleagues who kindly agreed to contribute articles to this book.
