

Contents

|                                                                                                                                     |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction .....                                                                                                                  | 7   |
| Rosanna Tramutoli Cultural metaphors of emotions in Swahiliand Zulu: language, body and healing practices .....          | 11  |
| Iwona Kraska-Szlenk Swahili proverbs from a cultural andcognitive perspective .....                                      | 29  |
| Izabela Romańczuk Feminist discourses on utu and heshima inselected works by Tanzanian women writers ..... | 61  |
| Thomas J. Hinnebusch Capturing the lexical richness of Swahilipoetry .....                                               | 79  |
| Beata Wójtowicz Kirusi or virusi ? Corpus-based research onCOVID-19-related terminology in Swahili .....   | 99  |
| Magreth J. Kibiki Pragmatic marker tu as a source ofimplicature in Kiswahili .....                                | 117 |
| Leonard Muaka The complexities of noun class system in theacquisition and learning of Swahili language .....             | 137 |